DESCRIPTION

Payroll withholdings for Washington State's new Paid Family and Medical Leave benefits began on January 1, 2019, and payments and reporting to Washington State begin on April 1, 2019. On January 1, 2020, many employees in Washington State will be eligible for paid leave benefits under the state's Paid Family and Medical Leave Act. Join this webinar for an update on what employers need to know and which administrative rules have been finalized, including the following:

- Covered employers
- Eligible employees
- Temporary employees
- Family leave and medical leave defined
- Qualifying reasons for leave
- 2019 payroll deduction obligations
- Reporting obligations
- Collective bargaining agreements
- Voluntary plans
