Join us on August 5, 2025, for the latest edition of our popular webinar series, What's Trending in Labor and Employment Law. The speakers will provide brief updates on the latest labor and employment law developments, including Gen Z's success in saving for retirement, the phenomenon known as the "Gen Z stare," vacancies in the NLRB General Counsel and Member positions, evidence suggesting that "work-life balance" is increasingly favoring work, the impact of artificial intelligence (AI) on workplace productivity and the candidate selection process, and how to conduct AI/HR audits, among other topics. Additionally, Mike Mahoney, chair of the firm's Employment Tax Practice Group, will join the discussion to share insights on overtime and tip tax relief in the One Big Beautiful Bill Act.
