Ogletree Deakins

WEBINAR

When 'Are You OK?' Isn't Enough: Mental Health, Safety, and Ethics at Work

Specialty CLE Credit May Be Available.

Mental health issues show up at work every day, leading to attendance problems, dips in performance, and sometimes even safety concerns. For employers, knowing what questions to ask, what support to provide, and when to step in isn't always obvious. Join this webinar for a practical overview of mental health accommodations, direct threats, and the latest court decisions regarding fitness-for-duty exams. Attendees will learn how to spot warning signs, initiate the right conversations, and respond effectively to a crisis. Additionally, in-house counsel will gain insights into their ethical obligations when mental health issues affect legal work.

SPEAKERS

Kelly S. Hughes (Charlotte)
Tiffany Stacy (San Antonio)
John M. Williams (Lexington)
Lisa England, Moderator

DATE

Tuesday, November 17, 2026

TIME

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Pacific
12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. Mountain
1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Central
2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. Eastern

COST

$99.00
Complimentary for
Ogletree Deakins clients

Register online at www.ogletree.com or email webinars@ogletree.com. Instructions for participation will be circulated before the webinar. Due to the specialty credits offered in this webinar, we are applying for CLE in additional states. If you have questions about the availability of CLE credits, please email cle@ogletree.com.

If you need financial aid to attend this webinar, please click here. For New York bar members, this program qualifies for newly admitted and experienced attorneys. To request an accommodation for a disability, please email accessibility@ogletree.com as soon as possible.