DESCRIPTION

Join us for the first in a two-part series in which attorneys from Ogletree Deakins' Workplace Safety and Health Practice Group will discuss the stages of an OSHA inspection and best practices that can reduce the risk of liability in the event of an inspection. Part I of the series will address topics related to preparing for an inspection and what to expect during the initial phase of an inspection, including the following:

- Triggers, including workplace accidents and employee complaints
- Reporting requirements for injuries, illnesses, and fatalities
- The Opening Conference
- OSHA's Walkaround
- Initial document requests
- Initial employee and management interviews
