

Proposed Legislation Would Bar Confidential Settlements In Public Sector Cases

June 4, 2008

Senate bill S1262, which would prohibit public entities and public employees from entering into confidential court settlements of claims or court actions against them, was unanimously approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee in May. The bill now heads to the full Senate for consideration. The bill provides that such settlements would constitute public records under the State's Open Public Records Act (OPRA).

Senate bill S1262, which would prohibit public entities and public employees from entering into confidential court settlements of claims or court actions against them, was unanimously approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee in May. The bill now heads to the full Senate for consideration. The bill provides that such settlements would constitute public records under the State's Open Public Records Act (OPRA).

Note: This article was published in the June 2008 issue of the New Jersey eAuthority.

TOPICS

Employment Law